

CHAPTER XLVII.

An Act to amend Chapter forty-six of the General Laws of Minnesota, approved March sixth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, relating to the printing and distribution of laws and public documents. March 4, 1869.

- SECTION 1. Amendment to Section two (2) of Chapter forty-six (46) of the General Laws of 1868. State Printing divided into five classes, to be let in separate contracts, and defines what constitutes each class.
2. Amendment to Section five (5) of said Chapter. Defines how printing of first class shall be done—size of pages and kind of type to be used.
3. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section two (2) of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

Sec. 2. The printing of the state is divided into five classes to be let as follows : The printing and binding of all bills for the two houses of the legislature, the legislative manual and minute or record books, together with such blanks, resolutions and all other matters as may be required by the two houses or either of them, or the officers thereof, other than in pamphlet form, shall constitute the first class, and shall be let in one contract ; the printing and binding of the journals of the senate and house of representatives, and of such reports, communications and other documents as enter into and make a part of the journals, constitute the second class, and shall be let in one contract ; the printing and binding of all reports, communications and other documents ordered by the legislature, or either branch thereof, or by the executive departments, to be printed in pamphlet form together with the volumes of executive documents, constitute the third class, and shall be let in one contract ; the printing and binding of the general and special laws and joint resolutions constitute the fourth class, and shall be let in one

Printing divided into five classes, let in separate contracts and to define each class contract; the printing of all blanks, circulars and other work necessary for the use of the executive departments other than such as are printed in pamphlet form, constitutes the fifth class, and shall be let in one contract.

SEC. 2. Section five of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

How printing in first class done.

SEC. 5. The bills and resolutions specified in the first class of printing shall be printed in folio foolscap form, with small pica type, each page to contain not less than thirty lines of solid matter, of the usual length, with a great primer reglet only in each space between the lines, and in counting the composition upon the bills and resolutions contained in the first class, the same shall be measured as solid small pica matter and every necessary fraction of a page shall be counted as a full page, but no entire blank page shall be counted or charged for. For all other work than bills and resolutions provided for in the first class the same rule of measurement shall be adopted as is provided in section nine (9) of said act relative to the fifth class.

When act to take effect.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1869.